

Summary

In a snowboard binding, there is a pivoting joint between the heel strap (5) and the base plate (1) around an axis (6) that runs transverse to the base plate (1). The lower edge area of the highback shell (7) also lies on the heel strap (5) in the middle in the riding position. A fixing device is provided to fix the pivot angle of the heel strap (5).

(Fig. 1)

Fig. 1

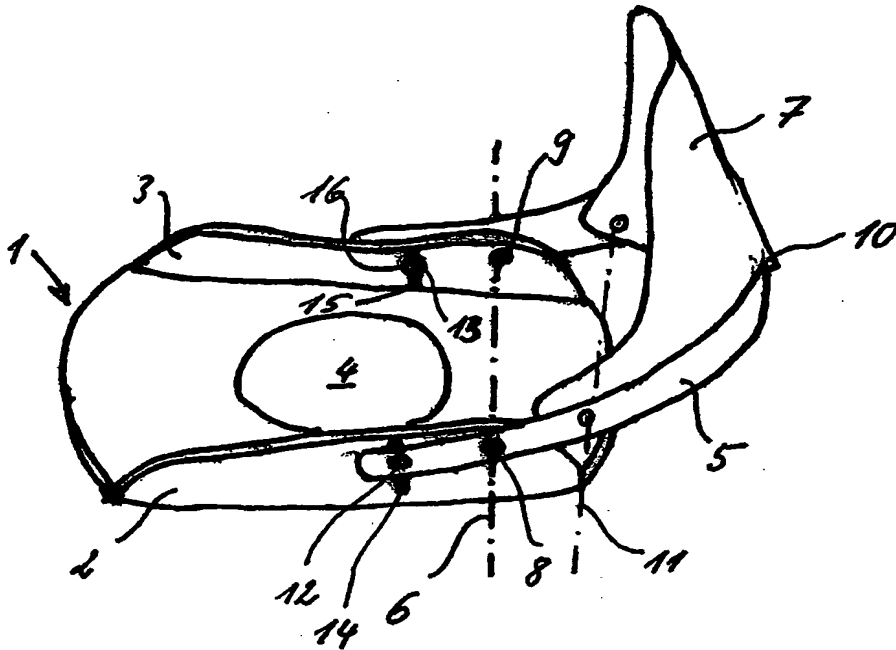

Fig. 2

